Our 3 Part Calling & Life Purpose

- 1. GENERAL CALL: To follow Jesus and make Him known
- 2. IMMEDIATE CALL: The tasks, duties and interruptions in life which God calls each of us to serve others
- 3. SPECIFIC CALL: The vocation or ministry that is unique to us that God predestinated us to do (Ephesians 2:10)

God Expects YOU to be both FAITHFUL & FRUITFUL

Fruitfulness is a major theme of the New Testament. Consider the following:

We are CALLED by Christ to bear fruit. (John 15:16)

Being fruitful is the way we glorify God. (John 15:18)

Being Fruitful pleases God. (Colossians 1:10)

Jesus reserved his severest judgment for the unfruitful tree. (Matthew 21:19)

The nation of Israel lost its privilege because of unfruitfulness. (Matthew 21:43)

Dr. Rick Warren, author, The Purpose Driven Life & The Purpose Driven Church

Importance of a Life Plan

The Lord had a plan for your life before your conception. He created you in a specific way with a set of gifts, desires, and a certain "bent" - so that you might fulfill His plan for your life. This plan is God's plan because God sees your life as a whole and undivided entity. A life plan is not something you construct but something you discover. God is the author; each of us is the recipient of a unique life plan.

Tom Patterson, author, Living the Life You Were Meant to Live

More About Your Life Purpose

"Your purpose in life is chosen by God. It is not negotiable. Defining your purpose will help you to determine the activities that you should be involved in. Like Jesus, you should not involve yourself in activities that contradict His purpose for your existence. Each of us must ask why we are involved in an activity. Is it a God-activity, or just a good activity?"

Os Hillman, Founder, Marketplace Leaders, TGIF Devotions

God's Promise To You

For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the Lord, Thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end. (Jeremiah 29:11)

How to Use Your Life Purpose & Self Discovery Report

- 1) Pray. Ask God for wisdom.
- 2) Identify your God given "gift mix" (Refer to Page 5)

Your Dominate (#1) Gift is: _____

Your Secondary (#2) Gift is: _____

Your Tertiary (#3) Gift is: _____

- 3) Ask yourself & others who know you well, "What activities am I good at?" Ask yourself, "Do those things bring me satisfaction?" This is a key component of identifying your calling.
- 4) Read through the rest of this report with # 3 in mind. Pay particular attention to the description sheets of your top three gifts; the pages at the back of this report, and your CALL guide.
- 5) Start writing and editing. Develop a concise paragraph or sentence that accurately summarizes your life purpose and calling. Laminate the life purpose statement and review it everyday. Examples appear at the end of this report.
- 6) Appreciate and thank God for making you who you are. Guard against "Gift Projection" and "Gift Envy" (Chapter 30 of The Purpose Driven Life)
- 7) Always remember and put into practice the two greatest commandments, found in Matthew 22:37,39

Better Understanding Your Unique CALLING & LIFE PURPOSE: The Seven Pathways of Life
Your Score	The Lord says, "I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye. Psalm 32:8	Your Ranking
1. (Spiritual) Truth Speaker/Visionary (Prophet)
8.02	This (SPIRITUAL) pathway is all about what is right and what is wrong. People on this road are perceptive, decisive and boldly proclaim to others what they believe is right. Truth is often more important than relationships or results. This is the pathway that is a moral compass and leads others to justice and righteousness.	1
2. (Physical) Cleansing & Practical Service (Server)
5.39	This (PHYSICAL) pathway is all about expediting acts of practical service (works) for others. People on this road take initiative without to complete whatever tasks are necessary to free up other people to be on the road, generally without being asked. Often focused more on results than relationships or truth (Martha).	5
3. (Mental) Deep-Rooted Understanding (Teacher)
5.64	This (MENTAL) pathway is all about accurately thinking through & interpreting the truth. People on this road are curious and want to know why. Will present evidence and let others draw their own conclusion. Driven more by knowledge than relationships or results.	4
4. (Relational) Timely Illuminations (Encourager)
7.93	This (RELATIONAL) pathway is all about personal connections that are uplifting, encouraging and inspiring to others. People on this road are often positive, affirming, popular, good story tellers, and get along well with everyone. They are driven more by good healthy relations than by works or academic knowledge.	2
5. (Economic) Resource Supplier/Giver (Contributor)
3.55	This (ECONOMIC/FINANCIAL) pathway is all about wise investment that yields an abundant harvest through the 3T's: time, talent & treasure. People on this road are self-sufficient, hard-working and low key (quiet). Overly generous to the right cause, they are very balanced between their head (truth), heart (relationships) and hands (results).	7
6. (Functional) Visionary/Administrator/Orchestrator (Leader)
7.78	This (FUNCTIONAL) pathway is all about a workable process to achieve and maintain worthwhile goals. People on this road have a take charge ability to stand before people to get results. Usually stronger at either setting a vision; implementing somebody else's vision; or maintaining the status quo with excellence (see p. 11). Results rule.	3
7. (Emotional) Worship and Compassion (Mercy)
4.42	This (EMOTIONAL) pathway is all about experiencing healthy emotional fulfillment. People on this road tend to have strong emotional energy. They desire closeness, loyalty and to be genuinely valued as individuals. Strongly driven by their hearts to have loving relationships.	6
All Seven Pathways are important for a balanced life. These rankings are intended to give you insight on what areas come more natural to you.

Better Understanding Your Unique CALLING & LIFE PURPOSE: Pathway # 2 of 7

2. Cleansing & Practical Service (Server)

Your ranking is: 5 out of 7

Typical behaviors of a server of a Server:

Is more alert to the physical needs of others (comfort, food, health) than anybody. Completes practical tasks without being asked. Hard to say no (volunteering champ). Can be a people pleaser. Tendency to over-commit. Quickest to apologize (needs approval). Not ego driven--- willing to share honor. Hard worker. May enable people by doing all their work as opposed to empowering them. Strong purity of motive, without guile. Self-sufficient--- does not call in IOUs. Prefers to be behind-the-scenes as a second banana or support person, not the leader.

Adjectives:

Expediter. Helper. Good neighbor. Yes person. People pleaser. Minister. Social worker. Handy man. Worker. Laborer. Server. Butler. Attendant. Volunteer. Jack of all trades. Reliable. Dependable. Trustworthy. Good Samaritan. Confidant. Help mate. Trusted assistant.

Strengths:

Does more physical labor than anyone. Flexible-- will drop what they're doing to help. Outstanding memory for likes and dislikes of people. Hospitality. Strong loyalty. Prays and works hard to make leadership look good. Works behind the scenes to keep everything going. Keeps things clean and orderly. Strong ability to persevere in the worst conditions. Anticipates needs of others.

Weaknesses:

Often ridiculed, pigeonholed, and made fun of due to superior work ethic and accomodating ways. Often manipulated because of natural desire to please others.

Career and Ministry/Church fit(s)

Hospitality: food, lodging, maintenance. Volunteering. Blue-collar work. Physical labor. Customer service. Working with children. Working as an assistant anything.

Calling:

To help others realize their calling. To persevere by taking care of time-consuming physical tasks of others so they may be freed up to embrace their calling. May also be called to serve those who cannot perform physical tasks themselves.

COMPARISON:

FACTOR	WORLDLY IMMATURITY	GODLY MATURITY
NAMES:	Slave, Pushover, Co -- Dependent, Dysfunctional	Appreciated, Loved, Respected, Surpasses all service expectations, Loyal, Dependable, Trustworthy

Better Understanding Your Unique CALLING & LIFE PURPOSE: Pathway # 3 of 7

3. Deep-Rooted Understanding (Teacher)

Your ranking is: 4 out of 7

Typical behaviors of a Teacher:

Seeks to verify truth. Accuracy is critical. Usually has an unhurried pace. Dislikes being told what to think. Prefers to figure things out themselves-- a thinker. Reluctant to tell others what to think but will report evrything they have learned. Tends to be nonjudgmental. Lousy at returning phone calls, e-mails, books etc. because of the intensity of their deep thinking intensity. May have difficulty with punctuality, managing money and other "to do" tasks--"absent-minded professor". Excellent at outlining the big picture and synthesizing all the research, data, statistics and resources available.

Adjectives:

Researcher. Academic. Thinker. Knowledgeable. Trivia expert. Learned. Answer man. Investigator. Detective. Auditor. Professor. Well informed. Reflective. Reader. Lifelong learner. Scholar.

Strengths:

Insightful. Historian. Ability to recall detail. Ability to connect the dots. Creativity. Curiosity. Need to go deep to get understanding. Excellent resource to report research findings. Low key, non-judge mental approach. Humorous. Attentive.

Weaknesses:

Difficulty coming to conclusions. Wants to do more research. Reluctant to tell people what to think. May overwhelm people with too much information. Needs deadlines. May temporarily forget about practical appointments and tasks.

Career and Ministry/Church fit(s)

Research. Curriculum. Investigator. Auditor. Advanced Bible studies. Writing. Editing. Professor. Historian. Resource finder.

Calling:

To get closure on the truth. To verify and explain what is right. To support others with accurate information, knowledge and wisdom to be more fruitful in their calling; to speak truth that heals, feeds, equips, and restores..

COMPARISON:

FACTOR	WORLDLY IMMATURITY	GODLY MATURITY
NAMES:	False teacher Laziness, Day-dreamer Lack of character	Excitement in researching theology. Insightful presentations. Applying book smarts to Street Smarts.
NEEDS:	Balance. Immature teachers are brilliant at work and a disaster at home.	To explain God's truth in a compelling way that glorifies God
FOCUS:	Self-centeredness	Connecting all the dots to God

Better Understanding Your Unique CALLING & LIFE PURPOSE: Pathway # 4 of 7

4. Timely Illuminations & Affirmations (Encourager)

Your ranking is: 2 out of 7

Typical behaviors of an Encourager:

A party looking for a place to happen. Natural ability to connect with strangers and become friends. Above-average need to have a "people fix "and avoid going into a "cocoon." Master communicator: personable and great storyteller. Can often re-tell a story better than the originator. Natural reporter. Hates rejection from insiders. Wants to be included. Knowledge of God is crucial for them to fulfill their purpose of exhorting God to others. Struggles with time management. Often juggles more than they can handle and does not get enough sleep. Very positive and optimistic. A natural networker and schmoozer. Dislikes criticism and negativity. Affirming and complimentary.

Adjectives:

Counselor. Coach. Exhorter. Mentor. Optimist. Positivity. Group minded. Inspirational. Motivator. Personal advisor. Image-conscious. Responsive. Involved. Connected. Affirming. Flexible. Enthusiastic. Cheerleader. Persuasive.

Strengths:

Natural ability to relate well with people. Affinity. Storytelling. Salesmanship. Offering hope, optimism and positive thinking. Popular. Enthusiasm and excitement. Motivational.

Weaknesses:

Career and Ministry/Church fit(s)

High school ministry. Drama. Counseling. Mentoring. Marketing. Sales. Public relations. Diplomacy. Speaking. Announcing. Storytelling. Greeting. Coaching. Evangelism. Missions. Youth ministry. Singles ministry. Shepherding. Board member. Legislator.

Calling:

To have a realistic understanding of their strengths and weaknesses so that they can be a positive influence through words and actions to encourage people to grow more mature and Christ like.

COMPARISON:

FACTOR	WORLDLY IMMATURITY	GODLY MATURITY
NAMES:	Gossip, Manipulator, Attention getter, Follower of the world, Popular and elite; Critical	Friend, Counselor, Mentor, Uplifting, Positive, Wise, Influential, Evangelical, Disciple Maker
SELLS:	World approval	Whatever Jesus would have them do
FOCUS:	Drawing attention to self	Drawing attention to Jesus

Better Understanding Your Unique CALLING & LIFE PURPOSE: Pathway # 5 of 7

5. Resource Supplier/Giver (Contributor)

Your ranking is: 7 out of 7

Typical behaviors of a Contributor:

Thinks generationally (how can they bless their grandchildren?). Does not have a welfare spirit--- very reluctant to accept handouts, special treatment or freebies. Would rather give than receive. Self-sufficient. Intuitive sense of what is right and what is wrong. Intuitive sense of hidden motives (more so with women contributors). Prefers to be low key and private. Does not like to draw attention to themselves. Values privacy. Refuses to be hustled. Detests high pressure tactics. Not confrontational. Astute at finding unseen options. Opportunistic without being competitive. Trustworthy with money. More charitable with tried and proven efforts, not startups or panhandlers. May tend to hoard assets and be stingy before age 50. May be overly generous later in adult life. Seems to have the magical ability to manage money; invest wisely; and avoid scams. Often owns their own business. Their challenge in life involves faith, not money.

Adjectives:

Trustee. Stewart. Giver. Value builder. Investor. Employer. Trustworthy.

Strengths:

Industrious. Hard-working. Blessed. Ability to multiply and increase value.

Weaknesses:

May have a tendency to trust their ability and not God's. In building their nest eggs, they may be too stingy with their family.

Career and Ministry/Church fit(s)

Executive positions. Financial and accounting positions. Creative problem-solving. Benevolence. Missions. Prayer. Long range planning. Programs that have a generational impact.

Calling:

To be a generational blessing with their time, talent and treasure. This will happen through faith and trusting in doing things God's way and not through their own natural ability. Examples include: Abraham, Jacob, Job, and Matthew.

COMPARISON:

FACTOR	WORLDLY IMMATURITY	GODLY MATURITY
NAMES:	Stingy. Selfish. Supporter of worldly causes. Trusting money for their security.	Generous. Quiet overachiever. Resourceful. Economical. Well-balanced.
DISLIKES:	Losing money. Giving to the Kingdom.	Seeing money wasted. People who are not trustworthy.
FOCUS:	Personal wealth. Greed.	Giving to the Kingdom.

Better Understanding Your Unique CALLING & LIFE PURPOSE:
Pathway # 6 of 7

6. Administrator/Orchestrator (Leader)

Your ranking is: 3 out of 7

Insight on three different aspects of Leadership:

7.38

Visionary Leadership: Knowing & Convincing Others Where To Go

7.91

Organizational Leadership: Implementing Change

5.76

Administrative Leadership: Maintaining the Status Quo

Typical behaviors of a Leader:

Tends to thrive on pressure by creating an image of intense busyness. May create stress to perform better due to adrenaline. May find it difficult to retire as most leaders have an excellent work ethic. May tend to drive others too hard. True leaders take responsibility and do not finger point. Leaders rarely volunteer but are very effective if they are recruited. Leaders have a "can-do" attitude. Leaders have little desire to be stroked, affirmed, or patted on the back. Results matter. Biblical heroes include: Noah, Solomon, Boaz, and Joseph.

Adjectives:

Orchestrator. Organizer. Results getter. One who stands up. Ruler. Commander.

Strengths:

Decisive. Assertive. Strategic. Focused. Determined. Purposeful. Resourceful.

Weaknesses:

May be bossy. May value results over people and truth. May rely on their agenda, not God's.

Career and Ministry/Church fit(s)

Change implementer. Manager. Supervisor. Authority. Board member. Executive. Coordinator. Organizer. Librarian. Logistics. Planning. Problem solving. Project management. Special event's. Crowd control.

Calling:

The calling of a leader is all about succession. Good leaders work themselves out of job by setting up a effective and efficient system that is workable, practical and desirable and can be turned over to others. This in turn perpetuates good results over the long run.

COMPARISON:

FACTOR	WORLDLY IMMATURITY	GODLY MATURITY
NAMES:	Dictator. Tyrant. Empire builder. Control freak.	Godly goals. Respected authority. Effective use of resources.
NEEDS:	Control.	Missions from God
FOCUS:	What ever will advance them personally	What ever will advance God's Kingdom

Better Understanding Your Unique CALLING & LIFE PURPOSE: Pathway # 7 of 7

7. Worship and Compassion (Mercy)

Your ranking is: 6 out of 7

Typical behaviors of a Mercy:

As seen in Ruth, David and John, Mercy's have few enemies. Mercy's are a safe haven for those who are hurting or wounded. Strangers will share their deepest secrets because of a deep caring spirit. Mercies can sense those who are hurting right away. Usually, a Mercy will have one or two close intimate friends. Mercies are more sensual and engage in touching, hugging, and physical contact more than others. Mercies have the greatest challenge maintaining moral purity before marriage. Mercies carry intense feelings and emotions and may take longer to adjust to change. They hate to confront. They seek the heart of God. They are more subjective and intuitive. They are more inclined toward the arts and music. Because they are overly kind, they attract abuse and become victims. They can become an enabler. They may take up offenses of third parties. They are often drawn to prophets. They have a predisposition to worship. They are the most sensitive, nurturing and loving of all the gifts. They can also be easily led astray by the wrong crowd. Often artistic

Adjectives:

Kind, emotional, compassionate, loving, nurturing, artistic, sensitive, empathetic, caring.

Strengths:

Relationships. Supportive, quick to forgive, empathy, comfortable, loving, self-sacrifice, affectionate, loyal, easy to get along with.

Weaknesses:

May get duped easily from the wrong crowd and pursue illegal and/or immoral activities that result in an emotional and temporary thrill. They have a greater difficulty sorting out conflicting emotions.

Career and Ministry/Church fit(s)

Nursery. Elderly care. Special needs. Nursing. Chaplaincy. Cosmetology. Arts. Music. Drama. Social work. Missions. Counseling. Prayer. Preschool.

Calling:

The calling of a Mercy is to make holy what is unholy. Mercies, more than any other gift, have a heartfelt capacity to connect emotionally with God through worship. Mercies also, more than any other gift, have a capacity to comfort those with pain, suffering, and hurt.

COMPARISON:

FACTOR	WORLDLY IMMATURITY	GODLY MATURITY
NAMES:	Free Spirit. Promiscuous. Overly sensual. Easily led astray.	Creative. Compassionate. Genuinely caring and concerned. Emotionally supportive.
WANTS:	To get approval and acceptance from others.	To worship God.
FOCUS:	On getting emotionally high	On intimacy (Holiness) with God
